

Adelaide "Addie" Trombley

October 16, 1926 - October 11, 2009

Kalkaska resident Adelaide Louise Trombley died of natural causes on Thursday, Oct. 8, at the age of 82. Born on Oct. 16, 1926, in East Detroit, she was the daughter of Jim and Jessie Hynes and enjoyed a happy childhood in nearby Grosse Pointe. At the age of 19 Addie met her husband to be, Francis Trombley, and they were married on June, 7, 1947, to begin what would be a 62 year marriage founded in a profound love and lasting devotion to each other. Soon they built their own home in Clinton Township in order to raise and provide for their growing family Addie was the devoted mother of nine children, 11 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren and will be dearly missed by all. In 1987 Frank and Addie moved to Kalkaska where Addie quickly became involved in a range of activities as a volunteer with the 'meals on wheels' program, a water aerobics instructor and an instructor in the art of Tai Chi. She is survived by husband Frank, her children Carrol Cantor, Alan Trombley, Rosemary Trombley, Phillip Trombley, Margaret (Gary) Smith, David Trombley and Diane (Cass) Budzynowski. She was predeceased by sons Francis Trombley and Dale Trombley. She is also survived by brother Bill (Serena) Hynes sister Carrol (John) Hodges and sister Florence (Bud) Hyde. Visitation will be held at the Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home in Kalkaska on Sunday, Oct 11, 2009 from 5-8 p.m. A funeral will be held at St. Mary of the Woods church in Kalkaska on Monday, Oct. 12, at 11:00 a.m. with Father Dixon officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery. Memorials may be given to the Kalkaska Commission on Aging. Arrangements were made by

Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home, our family serving yours.
