

Ann Louise Valentine

February 18, 1948 - April 6, 2025

Ann Louise Valentine, age 77 of Kalkaska, passed away peacefully with her husband by her side. She was born to the late Charles and Margaret (VanHollise) Chaddock in Charlevoix, Michigan on February 18, 1948. She married Jesse Valentine on August 7, 1968, in Elk Rapids. They have been married for 56 years after meeting at work and marrying in less than one week. As the saying goes, “behind every great man is a great woman”. After a move to Oklahoma from 2003 to 2017, they decided to come back to Kalkaska and call this their retirement home. Ann and Jesse could usually be found side by side helping people in the community whenever they could. Ann and Jesse were the 2023 Commission on Aging King and Queen. Ann and Jesse have fostered over 120 children in their time together.

Ann is survived by her loving husband, Jesse Valentine; three sons Jesse Valentine, Jr., Joshua Valentine, and Floyd (Melissa) Valentine; six grandchildren Samantha, Nicole, Jessica Ann, Matthew, Dakota, and Allyson; several great-grandchildren; siblings Carolyn Alexander, Floyd “Bill” (Linda) Lee, Rose (Jeff) Williams, Mary Bullock, Bonny (Terry) Ellis, and Barbara (Bill) Reames; brother-in-law, sisters-in-law Elaine (Dennis) Grundel, Lou Ann Valentine, Leon (Marilyn) Valentine.

She was preceded in passing by siblings Linda (Bill) Lieber, and Charles Chaddock.

The family will receive friends on Tuesday, April 15, 2025, at Wolfe-O’Neill Funeral Home from 10:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.

A luncheon will be held at the Commission on Aging at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 15, 2025.

Memorials may be made to the Commission on Aging, Kaskaska.

Arrangements provided by Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home, our family serving yours.
