“ I worked with both Mike and Tony at Myers Printing Service. I am saddened to hear of both their passings. Since moving to the Grand Rapids area I lost contact other than the occasional Facebook post. My prayers and hope for peace go out to the family and friends for the lost these two men.

“ So sorry to read of your loss. Death is an enemy whenever it strikes, but with so much life yet ahead it makes it harder to deal with. The words at Rev 21:3,4 are a real comfort for us as it offers a hope for the loved ones we have lost to death. My hope is this offers you some comfort as well for now and in the months yet ahead. And please accept my deep sympathy during this time of your loss.

“ Tony you became such a great friend over the years, best memory's will always be diskgolfing and just chilling on your porch for hours just talking about whatever. You were great to chase he loves you as I know you love him. It breaks my heart as he's been asking to go to Tony's house he wants to see you so bad, and crys when we have to keep explaining why we can't see Tony anymore. We tell him your in heaven with your dad looking down on us. We miss you so much already. May you be in peace now! ❤️❤️❤️
