

Barbara Jean Golden

April 18, 1932 - September 9, 2011

Barbara Jean Golden April 18, 1932 - September 9, 2011 "A long, hard climb, but, oh, what a beautiful view!" Barbara Jean Golden, 79, passed away in her home on Friday, September 9, 2011. "Bobbie" or "Barb" was well loved and respected by all who knew her, whether she was delivering their mail or serving up a hamburger basket. Barbara retired from the U.S. Postal Service in 1994, co-owned the Golden Bird Drive-in and Dairy Delight, worked at Bear Archery, and drove trucks for the United States Army among many other things she did during her busy life. She loved traveling with family and friends, especially out West. She was an excellent cook and anyone dropping by for a visit was lucky to sit down to a delicious meal. Barb is survived by her husband of 57 years, Clifford, and their son Brian (Patricia) Golden, grandchildren Cheri (Jeremy) Wilkinson, Michael and Dylan Golden, and great-grandchildren Makenzie, Madison, and Hunter. She is also survived by one brother, Robert (Nina) Curry of Fort Collins, CO, special niece Debbie Bird (David) Swales, many nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, sister-in-law and brothers-in-law and dear lifelong friends. Bobbie was predeceased by her father and mother Arthur and Eva Curry, brother Art Jr. and sisters Maxine "Mickey" TerHaar, Frances Thayer, and Ruth Ann Johnson. You are invited to come and share your memories as we celebrate Barbara's life at her son Brian's home 1486 Golden Road, Saturday, September 17, 2011, from Noon to 3 p.m. Prayers will be offered at 12:30 p.m.
