“ I moved to the UP in November 2024 and shortly after had the pleasure to meet Brandon. We were about the same age, had quite a few of the same interests, and shared many good memories. I was just looking at pictures of when he was up here and got his side-by-side stuck so badly in the mud. It's true what others have said, he was quite the jokester and could always put a smile on your face. I would typically see him weekly or monthly at the hospital where I work. Unfortunately, I found out a day after this happened; he was scheduled for a meeting with vendors, and I had called his cell to ask what time he would be here since he was running late. My heartfelt condolences to Brandon's family and loved ones.

“ Brandon was my first cousin, and neighbor, but he felt more like my slightly older brother. You know, the one who protected you and also the one you fought with a time or two, but still loved with all your heart. We grew up together with my sister that was the same age as Brandon, and Brandon’s Sister, who was the same age as me. The 4 of us had so many memories of waiting for the school bus throwing snowballs at each other and after school making snow forts or forts in trees, riding bikes, riding motorcycles, playing video games, having parties together, but best of all were the times swimming at our pond and having the rest of our cousins there. I’ll cherish these memories forever. I love you Brandon ❤️
