“ So sorry to learn of Cathy's passing. She was a very loving and sweet lady. She was always a joy to visit with, I remember seeing her at many craft shows with all of her beautiful crocheted items. I remember purchasing some of them for gifts, and some for myself. Many times Jim would be there by her side. A very loving and caring couple. My prayers are with the MacKellar family. Rest in peace Cathy.

“ Warm and wonderful memories of spending time with Cathy MacKeller and the MacKeller family under the Rose Garden Villas Tiki Hut in Cape Coral, Florida, enjoying the weather, the company and the lively conversations whenever she came to visit. I was the lucky benefactor receiving multiple crocheted pot scrubbers from Cathy. She even crocheted me a couple extra - black ones, after learning I had a black kitchen! I use them religiously and think of her each time I use them.

It was endearing to witness such a close family, enjoying each other's company, loving one another while I devoured Leo's delicious cooking! I treasure the times I have spent with the MacKeller clan in Florida. It was heart warming seeing how much you all loved your mom and took such great care of her! Your dedication did not go unnoticed.

“ I've been blessed with knowing the MacKeller family for most of my life. My Mama Toshi Bonney was one of Cathy's Japanese friends along with our dear friend Hide Waltz who also was Japanese. I met Edmund when we were just little boys we grew up together and had some awesome times together. I just wanted to tell the family that I'm so sorry for your loss and how grateful I am to have known your Mama and you all as a family. Stay strong lean on each other there is comfort in family. God bless 💕

“ What does one say about a 'Wonderful Person' that helped raise you.

Here is a 'Loving' person that loved so much, her love of her life Uncle Jim MacKeller. That she moved 1/2 way around the world to start a new life with her son Leo.

Coming to American, having to learn a new 'Language' and of course a whole new lifestyle with our American Culture.

I can only imagine how hard it was. But her Love for Uncle Jim pulled her to a new life.

As my family (Ruth and John MacKeller) would come a visit with our 6 kids, running around the house. I can always see Aunt Cathy with a smile, happy we were all there.

From the times of the early 60's TV where as we ran around the inside of the house the Rabbit Ears would fall down. And you could hear (Aunt Cathy) say slow down with her 'Beautiful Japanese Accent'. And then Uncle Jim and my dad said "stand there and hold the 'Rabbit Ears' now" until we got the station to come back on the TV.

Then I had the great honor to come and live with Aunt Cathy and Uncle Jim during the summers to Prune Christmas Trees when I was 13 and 14 years old. I was one of the family, helped with chores and learned a little of Aunt Cathy's lifestyle from Japan. We would sit, talk and she showed pictures for her Home town in Japan. (Of course I wish I had talked more).

As the years went bye and she would go to Japan for a visit and then come back to Kalkaska. Again I would find myself wanting to sit and talk with her as she would show me the pictures. How excited she was to talk about her trip and being with her family in Japan. And of course how she would love to show off America to her family from Japan when they would come a visit.

Then as we all got older..

You could see her face as she would smile, when her kids would grow up and get married. How proud she was of all of you. Then grandkids would be there to show their love to her.

Aunt Cathy you was and still are a very special person in my heart.

When I lost my wife (Charlene) you would come and sit with me again and talk to me, with the big heart that you had. With the lost of your husband (Uncle Jim) just a few years earlier. You would say "I know how hard this is but you will be OK".

I could go on.

Now I have tears in my eyes.

Time to say, "I Love You and Miss You".

“ We had a wonderful day last Saturday at Aunt Cindy’s house. Grandma woke up early around 7 am. We had toast and cereal and then she insisted on washing the dishes herself. We chatted at the kitchen table until around 1 pm and even though she was tired she didn’t want to nap. I told her I was tired and needed a nap, and that was the game changer. She always thought of others first and if I needed a nap we could nap.
