“ Sorry to learn Mr. Peck has passed! He was a very kind and wonderful man. I was hoping I would get to see him when the cold winter was over. He has earned his rest and has joined with Martha again. I remember when I met them many years ago. You never saw one without the other, and they were the nicest couple you always enjoyed conversing with them. My deepest sympathy to his family! You have so many memories to share. Rest in peace Mr. Cecil.

I knew Cecil Peck for many years. He and his wife were the nicest, kindest people I've ever met. They always had cookies for me when I delivered their home heating oil. My God be with both of them and there family and friends 🙏🙏🙏🙏
