

Cherlynn J. Wysocki

November 22, 1951 - September 11, 2023

Cherlynn J. Wysocki, 71, passed peacefully after a four-year battle with ovarian cancer on September 11, 2023.

She was oldest of her siblings. To say she was always in charge is an understatement. She loved her sisters and brothers. She was their rock. Surviving Cherlynn are her daughters, Heather Gordon and Jill (Donny) Vyverberg; her grandsons that she adored as much as they adored her, Rowdy and Riley Vyverberg; siblings Bonnie, Lori, Joni and Scott, Bill and Angelica, John and Beth, Tom and Tina, Randy and Julie, Tish, Kim, Scott, as well as Sandy, Gail and Jan. She loved all her nieces and nephews; it is hard to list them all. Family and friends were for making memories with!

She was preceded in death by her son Michael Wysocki; her parents; siblings, George, Mike; Nephews, Jimmy, and Bear; and Aunt Bobbie.

We celebrated CW's life at her Last Big Ass Party on August 26th. Many made it a night to remember as we enjoyed Fireworks over her backyard. We gave the gift of Storyworth to mom, in which she wrote this epitaph on March of 2023: I would now like to give some life advice from the most loving part of my heart. Learn to let petty little things and disagreements that in the whole scheme of life don't matter at all and certainly not enough to hurt someone you love. Just let it go. We are the only ones who control how we react to any given issue. Don't beat a dead horse trying to prove a point that's not important at all. Let it go. If you have behaved badly? Apologize. It's cathartic to own your behavior. Practice patience. Don't be quick to lose your shit over little annoyances. Let it go cuz it just doesn't matter. JUST LET IT GO

Arrangements provided by Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home, our family serving yours.

Tribute Wall

JG

“ I will miss the best older sister anyone could ask for. If we went north we always cut over to Kalkaska to visit, like my other sister Kim said Cherlynn had the best hugs. Larger than life, and she lived life to it's fullest. I'll miss the phone calls, you felt the love even though you were just on the phone. She is gone way to soon.

Love and Hugs / John Gordon

John C Gordon - September 17, 2023 at 01:47 PM

KG

“ I have so many find memories of her, on road trips if Bohemian Rhapsody came on her singing along, Mardi Gras, nobody traveled like her and wherever she went she thoroughly emersed herself to capture the full experience of the place she had traveled to, walks down her road with her in the summertime, Bear lake, helping me when I was at my lowest point in life physically and mentally taking me in straight from the hospital for 2 years, she healed my soul which was shattered at the time, words can't begin to express my love for this woman ❤️ she was AMAZING, and who can forget " Cone Slalom", she was the Best, I will miss you Sis, ❤️ Jill, Heather, Don and the boys my heart, thoughts and prayers are with you all (Big Hugs) P.S. she gave the best hugs as well

Kimra Gordon - September 14, 2023 at 11:11 AM

MM

“ Dear Jill and family,
I am so very sorry to read this. May many happy memories sustain you at this difficult time. Wishing you peace.
Fondly,
Michelle Moeggenberg

Michelle Moeggenberg - September 14, 2023 at 10:30 AM

RM

“ So very sorry to hear the sad news. Memories of CW - Lively conversations filled with wit and wisdom. So much fun to hang out with. Living life with gusto. Definitely a better poker player than me. So enjoyed our conversations across the euchre table, CDub definitely received a return on the $5 investment. :) Heather and Jill, she loved you so. Her family held her heart captive, never letting go. May your memories give you the peace, comfort, love and joy that she would want you to have.

Ranae McCauley - September 14, 2023 at 07:28 AM

RL

“ Sending love and prayers to you all. CDub was one awesome woman! So sorry for your loss.

Rachel Letts - September 13, 2023 at 12:35 PM

JL

Prayers and healing to you all. She was a wonderful person and will be sadly missed.

Julie Letts - September 13, 2023 at 12:58 PM

SG

“ Forever in my heart...you will be missed .."my sister in love"..Genie

Sandy Gordon - September 13, 2023 at 08:56 AM

KK

“ She was my real life Buddha, zen sister.

karen Kowalski - September 13, 2023 at 07:54 AM

RM

Ranae McCauley - September 14, 2023 at 07:30 AM

KW

“ CW and I had so many memories it's just hard to list one! We laughed so much it was ridiculous lol! OMG I will miss her she sure was something and I really believe we all learned something from her. You girls were so lucky to have one great mother! Cherish all your memories and I'm sure Rowdy and Riley will have tons to tell there kids about their Grandmother.

Karin Wagner - September 12, 2023 at 09:48 PM

PR

SORRY to learn of CW's illness and passing. I haven't seen her since my retirement. She was quite an individual and one you always knew her stand on things. She was friendly and Fun to converse with. To her family I send my sympathy and tell them to remember all the hood times. Those memories will help you thru your loss and they will keep her ever present with each of you. Know you all were loved, and she would speak of Rowdy and Riley with joy and love. May God Bless each of you as you go through your grieving!

Patty Rodgers

Patty Rodgers - September 13, 2023 at 11:00 AM

LB

“ Hugs & condolences to Jill and family. Love, Ben & Lauren Berthelot

Lauren Berthelot - September 12, 2023 at 09:43 PM

JB

“ She has left a huge hole in this world, but her legacy of love and compassion will last forever. Genie was how I knew her, and always a positive presence, lighting up every place she went. My prayers for all the family. Rest in Peace, Genie. Love, Jan

Jan Bowlin - September 12, 2023 at 08:19 PM

JB

“ She was always so welcoming to the missionaries within her home and I will forever be grateful for that experience. Every missionary knew tie burning ceremony happened at Sister Wysocki's house. - from former Elder Benitez

James Benitez - September 12, 2023 at 08:15 PM