“ It is strange to think about things that you never say to someone because you have time. Then one day there is no time. I have realized over the last few weeks that it wasn't Denise in my shadow like she thought, it was me in hers. Denise had a way to make things seem simple even when they weren't. I love and miss my sister so much no words can express. My heart will never be whole again. I love you always, My Sister, My Friend.

“ I think about you every day.. I see things and think Denise would have loved that. She may have not been my real sister but we had a bond deeper than that. So many things I miss sharing with her.. silly things just between us, things I didn't have answers to and went to her for guidance.. she will always be my big sis. She is deeply loved and missed.

“ To my daughter, Denise, and her family: I may not have been there when you were born, but you came into my life 15 years ago, and although we had our ups and downs, mostly it was a comical relationship. YOU, like your sister, Christy, could always make me laugh when I didn't want to! I will miss you and your craziness forever. I will love you for always!
