

Donald L. Dimon

April 26, 1934 - July 9, 2010

Donald L. Dimon, 76, passed away at his home in Kalkaska on July 9, 2010. He was born on April 26, 1934 to the late Roy and Blanch (Hill) Dimon. Don was a man of few words but was always a hard worker and prided himself as a man who always gave 110% in everything he did. Don was running the family farm at the age of 16. He was a man who could build a home and fix almost anything. Don served his country in the US Army during the Korean War as a paratrooper and parachute rigger. He could drive the largest truck, and worked as an oil field driller, and a lumberjack. Don was a man of many skills but his family always came first and his wants and needs were always last. He raced cars and sled-dogs and enjoyed fishing and camping. On December 10, 1952 he married the late Elza Dimon and became the proud father of Tim, Bruce, Colleen Rourke, Brian, and Brad Dimon. His first wife and his first born son, Tim, preceded him in death. On April 26, 1986 Don married Sharon (Ferguson) Jerls who survives and became "Dad" to William "Bill" Ferguson. He became "Grandpa" to many grandchildren and great-grandchildren in which he took great pride. Mr. Dimon left this world surrounded by those he loved in the home he built. He demanded respect and treasured good family values. The only material things that would light his eyes and smile up like a child at Christmas was a new cap for his collection. He will be forever missed. Arrangements were made by Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home, our family serving yours.
