

Earl E. Zamaites

April 4, 1930 - May 12, 2010

Earl E. Zamaites, 80 of Williamsburg, passed away on Wednesday, May 12, 2010 at Munson Hospice House in Traverse City. Born on April 4, 1930, he is the son of the late Walter and Genoa (Button) Zamaites. He married Joan Jarboe on December 15, 1951 in Flint. Earl was employed by Buick Motor Division in Flint as an electrical engineer from 1948 to his retirement in October 1983. Earl and Joan spent their retirement years on Lake Skegemog and wintered in Gulf Shores, Alabama. He enjoyed being the neighborhood handyman, spending time on the lake, and working with the Boy Scouts of America into his late teens. Earl was a member of St. Mary of the Woods Catholic Church and a veteran of the Korean War serving in the US Army. Surviving Earl is his wife Joan, and their children: Nancy (Jon) Lauckner of Oakland Twp., Gary (Kristina) Zamaites of Fleming Island, Fla., Steven Zamaites of Palatine, Ill., Sandra (Mark) Walter of Traverse City, and David (Michelle) Zamaites of Williamsburg, 11 grandchildren, and his sister Judy (John) McLaren of Cheboygan. Preceding Earl in death was his sister, Wilma Smith. Arrangements were made with Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ Earl E. Zamaites

January 30, 2023 at 04:02 AM

“ Earl E. Zamaites

January 30, 2023 at 01:03 AM