

Joel "JJ" Gay

November 2, 2003 - October 27, 2022

Joel Jaiden "JJ" Gay, age 18 passed away peacefully and on to his heavenly home on Thursday, October 27th, 2022, at his home in Rapid City.

JJ was born in Claire, Michigan, and later adopted as an infant by his parents Ronnie and Sharon Gay.

During his 18-year journey, JJ faced many obstacles and challenges. Although his body was broken, he had a sweet personality and was loved so dearly by his family. JJ was a blessing, and everyone who knew him loved him. JJ had captivating big blue eyes that were always accompanied with a smile that would capture your heart.

JJ spent most of his time watching his movies on his Ipad, of which his favorite was Toy Story. He also enjoyed musicals and affection from his family. JJ was the last surviving of his dad and mom's special angels. He will be missed dearly!

JJ is survived by his mother Sharon Gay (Jim), and siblings Matthew Gay (Cheryl), Misty Marshall (Dave), Melanie Farmer (Ethan), Bradley Gay, Cory Gay, Kaylee Gay, and ChrissiLyn Gay. JJ also had several nieces and nephews who loved him.

JJ was welcomed into Heaven by his daddy, the late Pastor Ronnie Gay of Rapid City, and his siblings: Zachary Evan Gay, Brady Christian Gay, Andrew Jarvis Gay, Jonah Paul Gay, and sister Emily Elizabeth Gay. He is also proceeded in death by his grandparents.

JJ will be laid to rest in Clearwater Township Cemetery with his daddy and siblings.
