

Josephine Joyce Aldridge

September 9, 1924 - October 16, 2015

Josephine Joyce Aldridge, 91, of Cadillac, passed away on October 16, 2015 at Munson Health Care in Cadillac. Josephine was born on Sept. 9, 1924 in Oliver Twp., Kalkaska, the daughter of the late John and Bertha (McCool) Tanner and her beloved step-father, Lawrence O'Neal. Josephine graduated from Kalkaska High School in 1942. She raised her family as Christians and was very hard working. Josephine retired from Dura Automotive in Mancelona in 1988. She loved to dance. Her children and grandchildren were her life. Josephine was a Christian who lived a life of sacrifice and service. Surviving Josephine are her children, Janice & John O'Brien, Glenna Barnard and Al Barnard; grandchildren, Joseph Barnard, Joanie Barnard, Aaron Seaboldt, Daniel & Katie Driggett, Jacqueline and Chris Kibbe, Mary Ellen and Caul Bluhm; 10 great-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Joyce Tanner; and many cousins, nieces and nephews. Preceding Josephine in death is her husband, Clarence Barnard in 1979; her second husband, Thomas Aldridge in 1995; and her siblings, Marvel (Jay) Lanzter, Nellie (Floyd) Hamilton, Milo (Arlene) Tanner, Thad (Irene) Tanner and Gene Tanner. Visitation will be on Tuesday, October 20th from 5:00 pm – 7:00 pm at Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home. The funeral service on Wednesday is at 11:00 am at the Kalkaska Church of Christ. Gary Leftwich of the Cadillac Church of Christ will be officiating. Memorials may be given to the family of Josephine, payable to Glenna Barnard, 106 S. Cherry, Kalkaska, MI 49646. Condolences can be left online at wolfeoneill.com. Arrangements were made by Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home, our family serving yours.

Tribute Wall

“ Josephine Joyce Aldridge

January 30, 2023 at 04:02 AM

“ Josephine Joyce Aldridge

January 30, 2023 at 01:03 AM