

Joyce Louise McCool

July 1, 1930 - April 22, 2010

Joyce Louise McCool passed away quietly in her home on April 22, 2010 after a long battle with cancer. She was surrounded by her loving family. Joyce was born on July 1, 1930, to Paul and Faye Ingleright. On June 15, 1950, she was married to Max E. McCool who survives. Joyce and Max lived the rest of their lives together on the family farm in Kalkaska, Mich. Joyce loved the farm and enjoyed gardening, cooking, quilting, and family gatherings. She was very active in her community and, together with her husband, opened her home to many foster children, missionaries and evangelists. She touched many lives during her time on earth. Together, Joyce and Max were very active members of the Spencer Church of Christ where they attended regularly all of their married life, taking part in bible studies, hosting youth groups and much more. Both Joyce and Max greatly loved working with the Wilderness Christian Camp situated just west of their farm on 40 acres which they donated to the camp and to which they devoted a great deal of their time and effort. Joyce especially loved being surrounded by her children and grandchildren. She is survived by her husband Max of 59 years, a brother Larry (Nancy) Ingleright, sons Paul (Debbie) of South Africa, Mark (Robin) of Mancelona, Steve (Peggy) of Florida and a daughter Nancy (Scott) Luca of Kalkaska. She is also survived by 10 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, one sister, and a son, Max Douglas. Memorial services will be held at the Spencer Church of Christ on Thursday, April 29 at 2 p.m. with a visitation time from 1-2 p.m. preceding. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Wilderness Christian Camp, care of Spencer Church of Christ.

Tribute Wall

“ Joyce Louise McCool

January 30, 2023 at 04:02 AM

“ Joyce Louise McCool

January 30, 2023 at 01:03 AM