“ I still remember all of the times Judy came to school at Halloween dressed to the nines in an amazing costume. The kids and staff loved it. She brought much laughter and joy to all of us even if her girls weren't always too thrilled. I know those of us who had the privilege of viewing her and Doc Spencer's Dolly Parton and Kenny Rogers impersonation at our church talent show will never forget it. We didn't roll in the aisles but it was close! We will be thinking of you and praying for you. Love and hugs, Sharon and Dave Stockford

“ Growing up, Judy (we called her little Judy and her mom big Judy) Szymanski was one of our favorite people in our little Clarkston neighborhood in the orchards. Nobody but her mom had a bigger personality. So much fun. She will surely be missed. Blessings and condolences to the family, including our sweet Joe, her brother. --
