“ Running up the sand hills and rolling down them like children...walking with her in the woods..playing guitar and singing with her...the most beautiful woman I have ever had the honor to meet..

“ Julie was the most caring person I know. She often went to work in remore locations to help on people's farms. Julie loved living up north. She had the cutest house and friends that really cared about each other; thank you to all of them. Julie's legacy are her daughters Lisa and Anna. They are so much like their Mom, caring and so fun to be around and both are amazing moms to Natalie, Cameron, Logan and Isla. Even though Rick and Julie were no longer married, Rick and the girls were there for Julie as she needed help. I know Julie is still making a difference in my life. I will forever cherish her.

“ I will always remember Aunt Julie brushing and braiding my hair, making me feel like a princess. I loved when she played her guitar too, it had beautiful flower stickers on it that made me want to be a hippy like her. The "Well behaved women rarely make history" bumper sticker on her green van was always an inspiration to me. I loved spending time with her and the cousins in the pop up even if it was only in the drive way. We would play cards and listen to music all night! I love you Aunt Julie and always will.

Love,
Olivia
