

Kathleen Brigid Fischer

April 5, 1949 - October 19, 2023

Kathleen Brigid (Downes) Fischer age 74, born to Leo and Shirley (Ebert) Downes on April 5, 1949, passed away to her heavenly home on October 19, 2023, with all of her children by her side.

Our mother in her earlier years was a wife, and homemaker, along with running a successful in-home daycare business. She spent her days caring for her family and was a huge supporter in her children's 4-H endeavors and activities. When her children moved away, she eventually moved up north creating her own little oasis being surrounded by nature she loved so much. Kathleen is survived by her four daughters Theresa (Greg) Kamenoff, Pamela McNaught, Lisa (Michael) Meyer, and Andrea Fischer; three grandchildren Hailey McNaught, Rylin McNaught, and Gavin Meyer; siblings Michael (Margaret) Downes, Karin (Ron) Downes, and Maureen Fahlbush and her nineteen cousins.

Our mother will be dearly missed by many.

We hope you will be able to join us for a committal prayer with inurnment to follow on Saturday, October 28, 2023, at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, 25800 W. 10 Mile Road, Southfield, MI 48033 at 10:30 a.m. (please meet at the front office parking lot at 10:15 a.m. for the procession to the inurnment.)

In lieu of flowers memorial donations maybe to Oscoda County Council on Aging, 429 N. Mt Tom Road, Mio, Michigan 48647, in Kathleen's name.

“ Many, many years ago (mid-70s), my husband Greg and I were stationed on the east coast for a year while he was in the military. We fell in love with a gorgeous jet-black young cat that we hoped had a home besides ours. She didn't of course and we already had cats at home in California.

Kathy was on a farm in Michigan at the time and she and her kids generously adopted Patouti (the kids called her Midnight) into their family. I felt so relieved to have our beloved friend in a loving home! Thanks to Kathy for her welcoming ways.
