July 1, 1947 - December 20, 2020

She is predeceased by her parents, Julian and Theresa (Aikens) Halleck, her first husband John G. Firsch, second husband Richard G. Mansfield and third husband Robert L. Williams.

She was an in-home hospice care worker, she had been a bookkeeper, had run for office, raised and showed dogs, raised leader dogs for the blind, managed real estate and many other endeavor's. She had an affinity for all of God's creatures and his artwork, as well as being a loving daughter, sibling, cousin, mother, aunt, and grandmother. She loved her family very much. She loved God very much, as well. She wanted to devote her life to him, however, He had other plans for her. We wouldn't of traded it for the world.

She is survived by eight siblings: Bill (Patricia) Halleck, Gay (Tim) McInerney, Jan (Gail) Halleck, Lynn (Kurt) Climie, Mark Halleck, Barry (Karon) Halleck, Bette Jo (Raymond) Segorski and Chriss Halleck; her children: Joy (Don) Nerone, step daughter, LeeAnn Maul, daughter, Chriss (Jeff) Myers, daughter, Darla Martin, daughter, and Jane (Matt) Mansfield, daughter, as well as several other step children, many cherished grandchildren and great grandchildren; special dear friends that she adored, Ruth (Steve) Ormsbee, Jennifer (Mike) Thomas, and Tammy (Mike) Schafer, as well many extended family and friends.

There will be an intimate gathering for family and close friends at a later date.

Our hearts are forever broken, but we know she is wrapped in warm loving arms, and as she always said, "God Bless."

“ I have been healed of my heart and sole. I no longer hold anger towards you. You no longer bear any weight in my life and I forgive you. I forgive you, not for you but for me. I release your sole and ask God to have mercy upon it. Chriss

“ She loved her children VERY much! She had a fond affinity for God's creations, She would regularly stop and enjoy the rose on her travels. She wore so many hats! She tried to give back wherever she could. May she peacefully rest in her saviour's arms. Blessings, from Kim Mansfield's family.

You do not speak for me. I do not share those statements and strongly disagree.
