

Marjorie A. Lewis

June 24, 1920 - April 17, 2009

Marjorie Anne Lewis, 88, of Traverse City, died Friday, April 17, 2009 at the home of her daughter and son-in-law. Marge was born on June 24, 1920 in Mansfield, Ohio, to the late Harry and Blanche Crampton. She married Leonard Lewis on March 4, 1950; he preceded her in death on February 14, 1967. Marge graduated from Asbury College in Wilmore, Ky. She had a War Emergency Teacher's Certificate and taught school in Buckley for one year. She continued her education at Wayne State University, receiving her teaching certificate and taught third grade in Detroit. She retired to Ocoee, Fla. but continued working until the age of 75. She moved to Traverse City in 2000. Marge was loving and caring and had a great sense of humor. She enjoyed the company of her family and her many friends, and always enjoyed a great game of Scrabble. Marjorie is survived by her daughter, Cynthia (Dale) Bush; her son, Ted; her five "grands", Julie (Dave) Caulfield, Kelly (Mark) Borgman, Andrew Collin and Cady Lewis; and her great-grand-daughter, Caitlin Anne Caulfield. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; sister, Mary Jane Crampton; and brother, Theodore And John Crampton. A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, April 21, at The Village at Bay Ridge located off Silver Lake Road where Marge lived for 8 years. In remembrance of Marge, memorials may be directed to Northern Lakes Community Presbyterian Church, 5444 Herkner Road, Traverse City, MI 49684. Arrangements were made by Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home, our family serving yours.
