

Mary Louise Thompson

April 7, 1926 - October 7, 2023

Mary Louise Thompson, age 97 of Lake Ann, Michigan passed away peacefully at home on Saturday, October 7, 2023.

She was born in Lansing, Michigan on April 7, 1926, to the late Fred and Dorothy (Bradt) Brown.

Mary was preceded in passing by William Giacalone her first husband, their daughter Rose M. Lee, son-in-law James Lee and her second husband John L. Thompson.

She is survived by her children Michael (Connie) Giacalone, and Laura (Westly) Lynch; grandchildren Janice Pusino, Brian (Erin) Lee, Robert Giacalone, Dawn (Bryan) Potts, and Jason Lynch; six great-grandchildren Jessica, Angelia, Tony, Preston, Serenity, Kyle, and one great-great grandchild Henry; sister Patricia Reno; and two half-sisters Peggy McKibbon, and Sandra Gunning.

In her early years she was involved in the P.T.A. and scouting. She enjoyed sewing and making a house a home. Mary worked for many years as a secretary and bookkeeper for a variety of businesses.

She traveled many summers visiting 47 of the United States, just missing Rhode Island by just a few miles. Mary took in the beauty of many National Parks and historical sites, she also visited Canada and Mexico.

In later years she enjoyed yard work, reading, and spending time with family. She was a strong hard-working woman. Mary was generous and kind to help family and friends in need. She had a great sense of humor.

She was the best mother, a loving grandma, and a good friend. Mary will be remembered often and greatly missed by all who loved her.
