

Max Hummel

May 20, 1925 - May 30, 1925

Max Hummel, born in Romanshorn, Switzerland on May 30, 1925, passed away peacefully in Traverse City, MI surrounded by his daughters on February 17, 2014. A millwright by trade, he worked extensively in Europe and Latin America. He always dreamed of coming to the United States and in October 1971, that dream was fulfilled when he and his family arrived in York, PA. They lived there until November 1975 when the family moved to Peoria, IL. He worked at Pabst Blue Ribbon Company and was the bread maker for Avanti's Restaurant. His hobbies included organic gardening, reading and classical music. He was a member of St. Vincent de Paul Parish. He is survived by his wife, Maria Roca Hummel, his daughters, Maria (Rod) Taplin, & Rosa (Brian) Breneman, and his grandchildren, Mitchel and Ellie Taplin and Maya and Sander Breneman, and his sisters Rosalie and Maya Hummel, both of Switzerland. A family memorial service will take place this spring in Traverse City, MI.

Tribute Wall

“ Max Hummel

January 30, 2023 at 04:02 AM

“ Max Hummel

January 30, 2023 at 01:03 AM