“ To the parents, grandmother and siblings of Maxwell! My son, SPC Stanzione and Maxwell were in the same unit! This summer while on leave, Gavin his wife, my husband and I traveled to Mackinac Island, MI! To our surprise, Maxwell and his entire family were on the Island at the same time. I met Maxwell and spoke to his parents and grandma for quite sometime. It was a fun encounter. We can not even begin to understand your grief; but are grateful we got to meet your son, brother, grandson! Hugs, Jamie and Paul Stanzione

“ I was in the same unit as SPC Hockin and we worked together a lot. He was a very nice guy and I'm so sad by his loss. I remember a time when we had to clean a lot of barracks rooms to get ready for the unit coming back from deployment and he kept making jokes about all the stuff we were finding that was left behind, it's hard to replicate what he said because you had to be there, but it was really funny and he made the week go by significantly faster. He was a lot of fun to be around and I miss him already.
