

Mr. Merle Lee Morgan

June 6, 1925 - June 6, 2020

Merle L. Morgan, 95 of Williamsburg, passed away on Saturday, June 6, 2020.

Merle was born on June 6, 1925, in Hannibal, Missouri to the late, Harold and Viola Louise (Ross) Morgan.

Merle served in the World War II South Pacific and Japan, and was honorably discharged from the United States Marines in April of 1946.

Merle married Pearl S. Gottschalk on December 6, 1947, in Detroit, Michigan. They were married for 70 years. Pearl preceded him in passing on September 24, 2018.

Merle loved the outdoors, feeding the birds and working in the fields. He was a lifetime member of Buckley Old Engine Club. He loved his tractors and was very fond of his 1936 John Deer "BO". Merle enjoyed providing crafts and lap robes for the Grand Traverse Pavillions and the Veteran Hospital. He loved to spend time with his family.

He was a member of the Amvets Post in Williamsburg, Masonic Lodge #2264 in Acme and VFW Post #2780 in Traverse City.

Merle is survived by his children, Ronald (Janet) Morgan, Nancy (Doug) Peterson, and Cheryl (Roger) Wing; five grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Merle was preceded in death by his two sisters, Wanda, and Georgia.

Private family services will be held with internment in Williamsburg Cemetery.

Arrangements were provided by Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home. Our family serving yours.
