“ I am sorry to learn of Norma's passing. A very nice friend and a lady, whom I have been fortunate to have known almost my entire life. Her family were super nice neighbors of our neighborhood when I was growing up. Norma's father, Mr. Perry, was one of my school bus drivers, and Ms. Goldie was a great homemaker and a joy to converse with. I use to babysit Dale and Evelyn Motz's children when they were small. We, also, had Ivan Motz's family as neighbors as well. Went to grade school with their son, Jerry. To Wayne, Randy, Janice and the rest of the Motz family, you have my deepest sympathy in your loss. Cherish your memories and and draw on them to keep your loved ones near. May God Bless you all!
