

Raymond Charles Clous

December 24, 1917 - September 7, 2015

Raymond Charles Clous, 97, of Traverse City, formerly of Buckley, passed away peacefully Monday, September 7, 2015 with his loving wife at his side at Traverse Victorian Senior Living. He was born Dec. 24, 1917 to Frank and Hedwig (Wurm) Clous in Kingsley. Raymond married Irma J. Worm on February 11, 1941 at St. Mary's Church in Hannah. They lived all of their married life in Buckley where they farmed many acres, as well as working at Traverse City Iron Works, and Smeltzers Orchards in Bear Lake and operated Clous Fertilizer. In their later years, they wintered in Kissimmee, Florida where they made many wonderful friends. He enjoyed golfing, playing cards, spending time with his family, and his old tractors. Raymond was very instrumental in starting the Buckley Old Engine and Thresher Club. Surviving Raymond is his wife of 74 years, Irma; their children; Gerald, David (Rosalie), Arthur (Barbara), Mavis Clous, Larry (Janice), Susan (Patrick) Buchan; brothers, Alfred, Joseph, Francis; sisters, Dorothy Stein, Teresa Bott and Mary Lyon; 28 grandchildren, 63 great grandchildren and 18 great-great grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Frank and Hedwig; brothers, Wilfred, Thomas, John, Julius, Lawrence, Victor, Clarence, Edmund, Leonard, Ralph and August; sister, Marcella; and daughter-in-law, Carol Clous. Memorial visitation will be held on Monday, September 14th from 5-8 p.m. at St. Mary's of Hannah Church, with the rosary at 7:00 p.m. Visitation will continue on Tuesday, Sept. 15th from 10 am until time of mass at 11:00 a.m., Fr. Gerald Okoli officiating. Interment of ashes at St. Mary Cemetery. Memorials contributions may be made to St. Mary's of Hannah Church, the Buckley Old Engine and Thresher Club, or Munson Hospice. Arrangements were made by Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home, our family serving yours.
