“ Reginald Harry Fischer, age 96, passed away January 10, 2021 in Bellaire, Michigan. Beloved husband of Joanne, dear father of Eric (Kristine) Fischer, and Amy (Jeffrey) Fischer, loving grandfather of Kaite Fischer, adored uncle of Faye Zimmerman, Gary Kellogg, Nancy Bartlett, & Shirley Kruger, and many more nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by loving sister Anne (Kellogg) and brother Andrew Fischer.

Reg was born February 19, 1924 in Pittsfield, Massachusetts to Andrew A. & Minnie (Schickler) Fischer. He grew up in Bridgewater and Ann Arbor where he attended Saline High School.

On his 18th birthday he enlisted in the Navy. He proudly served in World War II on the Aircraft Carrier USS Bismark Sea and survived the sinking of his ship at Iwo Jima. He was an accomplished pilot and remained a member of the Navy Air Force Reserves for many years after his honorable discharge with many commendations.

On December 12, 1953 he married Joanne Osmer in Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan. Reg's love of cars resulted in his becoming a Master Mechanic while he owned gasoline stations in Ann Arbor. After many years he moved his family to Traverse City where he maintained a private repair shop for 50 years. Reg was the go-to person for any kind of car problem. A strong and modest man who made friends wherever he went, his family and friends will miss his quick smile, easy laugh, bear hugs, and so much more.

“ Sympathies to the Fischer family. I met Reg on several occasions and always thought of him as a great man and enjoyed conversation with him. My first memory meeting him was many years ago at his property in Sault Ste Marie. I had thought how lucky he was to have this beautiful property on the St. Mary's river and the very quaint cabins. I hope that your memory of him will live on in your hearts.
