“Wow, where do I start? First of all, by blood he was my cousin but in my heart we were brothers. My memories about my cousin Richie are great ones, I remember growing up trying to stay the night at each others houses so we could stay up all night playing Super Mario Brothers and being so excited when our parents would say yes. I remember as we got older we would army crawl across his living room floor to steal cigarettes from his mom and dad at Anderson apartments. He was a pro at that lol. Listening to oldies in his dads f150 for hours while pretending to drive was a daily occurrence. We loved fishing for suckers in depot town and breaking into a certain pizza shop to steal pizza toppings and quarters. We were inseparable for many years in our childhood leading into my early 20s. Those are just a few of thousands of memories I have with my cousin Richie. I know he loved his wife Liz and kids so much, every time I talked to him he bragged about how good little Richie (Chardo) was doing or how badass Mason was. I'm struggling to figure out how to end what I want to say about my cousin and all I can think of is he was so loved by all of his family and friends and will be missed dearly. I can't believe you are gone, it just doesn't seem real. I love you so much Richie, RIP. Love Bill.
