“ Long ago and far away on a farm in what I believe was Dewitt, Michigan, I was visiting my bother David and his beautiful wife, Sandi. I attempted to close a gate behind a horse when the horse kicked the gate and it hit me in the head. I fell to the ground. Sandi rescued me and cared for my head wound so compassionate and lovingly. I would never forget her show of Love for me and I took that memory of compassion and quick thinking into my nursing profession. Each of us impacts one another. Choose your words and actions carefully.
