“ A truly beautiful woman, physically, emotionally and spiritually. She and husband were an example to the world of a strong, caring marriage. It was a pleasure to have known her and learned from her. It saddens my heart to know, she has left us. I can only imagine the loss the family now feels. To the family, you were blessed, with one of the best mothers and Grandmother I have ever met. To Forest, you truly were blessed with one the best wife, I had ever met. Her love for you always came first and foremost. She was what a true Christian is meant to be. There are few women, as good as Sharon. I too will miss her. Liz Moore
