

Sonya Lee White

April 29, 1961 - October 4, 2010

Sonya L. White, 49, passed away at her home Kalkaska on Monday, October 4th, 2010. She was born in Wayne, MI on April 29th, 1961 to Imogene White and the late Lewis F. White of Williamsburg. Sonya was diagnosed with a rare brain disorder when she was 5 years old and lived with her loving parents until she was 30. Since that time, Sonya had lived in a Kalkaska group home for the mentally and physically challenged operated Summertree of Boyne City, MI. Over a 20 year period of living in the home in Kalkaska, Sonya was cared for by a large number of loving and exceptional caregivers at the home who became part of her extended family. She was also attended to by Dr. Mark Frick who cared for Sonya for most of her adult life. She is survived by her mother Imogene; her brother Mark White and his wife Julie of Clive, IA; her sister Philippa and her husband Frank of Prestonsburg, KY; and her nephew Joseph also of Prestonsburg, KY. Sonya is preceded in death by her loving father and protector Lewis. The funeral service for Sonya was held at Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home on Friday, October 8th. She was buried in Evergreen Cemetery in Kalkaska next to her loving father. Memorials may be given in the name of Sonya White to Summertree, Inc., 210 N. Lake Street, Boyne City, MI 49712. Summertree, Inc. is a non-profit corporation. Arrangements were made by Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home, our family serving yours.
