

Stella "Sally" M. Koch

June 25, 1918 - August 15, 2012

Stella "Sally" Koch, passed away on Wednesday, August 15, 2012 at French Manor Senior Living in Traverse City. She was born on June 25, 1918 in Detroit, her parents the late Mike and Mary (Fijolek) Pruss. Sally is the beloved mother of Nancy Samalis of Schaumburg, IL and Robert (Betty) Koch of Medford, OR; the loved grandmother of Barbara (Jeff) Hearne and Vicki Silva; and cherished great-grandmother of Brendan, Jordan, Sarah, Jackson and Brent. Sally married John J. Koch and together they raised and harvested Christmas trees on their farm in Kalkaska. Her hobbies included line dancing, snow shoeing, gardening, painting, and knitting to name a few. She was active and playing golf, the game she loved, last summer. Sally was a Eucharist minister at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of which she was a member for many years. Preceding Sally in death was her husband John; and her siblings, Irene and Walter. A memorial Mass will be held on Saturday, August 25th at 11:00 am at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church with Reverend Jim Hayden officiating. Burial will be at White Chapel Cemetery in Troy.
