“ Susie as we knew her was such a special woman. We met her at the Platte River Inn which was a very special place for us to eat. We celebrated a few family birthdays there. We loved the food and Susie even more. She will be missed by so many that patronize the restaurant. Susie loved two of my grandkids like her own. They always looked for her and loved getting hugs from her. There was just nothing like a warm loving Susie hug. My sincere condolences to the family.
