“ So sorry for his friends and Family members and their loss of a very kind and caring man of whom I have know for a very long time. Terry will be missed a lot. He always reminded me of uncle Jesse from Dukes of Hazzards. I always watched out for him when out at the local pub. He was just so nice and would give the shirt or last dollar to just about anyone. Sometime to nice for those who are willing to ask him. Terry is and was a great friend of mine on who I will miss a great deal. This is very sad and heart breaking. Heaven is getting a man with alot of heart along with a little piss and vinegar. Bye for now my friend. 😭 Prayers going out for his loved ones. 🙏

“ I spent many summer times visiting with my cousin Terry and his sister Janice. It was the "highlight of our year" when summer came around and we could visit our cousins up north. Terry could find humor and laughter in all that he did. Still can taste those little huckleberries we picked in the woods beside the house. So sorry Terry is gone but so happy he made memories that have stayed a life time with me.

“ Terry was a great man. My wife and I enjoyed having breakfast with him at the Yankee Boy. He also sat on Santa's lap and acted like an elf. He will be sadly missed. R.I.P.
