

Violet May Bennett

May 13, 1929 - August 18, 2017

Violet May Bennett, 88, slipped into eternity from the home of her youngest son Kirk and Carla Bennett to be "Together Again" with her husband of over 50 years, Rex Brooks Bennett. A loving homemaker, Violet was happy with the simple things of life. She loved her family, grocery shopping, baking, canning, gardening, reading and doing crossword puzzles. Violet is survived by her children, Ellen (William) Goebel of Canton, Rex Bennett, Rick Bennett, and Kirk and Carla Bennett of South Boardman, 5 grandchildren and several great grandchildren, and her brother Roy (Ruth) Henning of Westland. In addition to her husband Rex, Violet was preceded in death by her parents George and Mary (Schoeb) Henning, six sisters Agnes Wick, Edna Henning, Dorothy Gardner, Gladys Dix, and Lillian Buttermore and three brothers George, William and Everett Henning, and her infant daughter Lana and her granddaughter Tracy Foreman. Graveside services will be held for the family at a later date. Memorial gifts in Violet's honor may be directed to Hospice of Michigan 10850 E. Traverse Highway, Traverse City, MI 49684. Arrangements were made by Wolfe-O'Neill Funeral Home, our family serving your family.

“ To the Bennett Family, My deepest condolences to you at this time. I am so glad that I got to meet and know Violet, I enjoyed our talks and we even had our own private laughs. I know she was a good mother who loved her family and was very caring. I am glad to know that in her time of need she was able to have family take care of her and be there. My dear friend Violet you will be greatly missed. To the Bennett Family, may your memories give you peace and comfort

“ Dear Kirk and Carla, We were very saddened to hear of the passing of Kirk's mother, Violet. I know you are a very close family which makes it even more difficult. May all the fond memories you have help bring you comfort. She will be missed and always loved. The love and tender care you gave her during these difficult days I am sure brought her much comfort. May her memory be eternal. Lovingly, Stacy and Steve Garris and family

“ When I think of Grandma, I remember a few things. There was always something good to eat at grandma's house. There were always interesting things to explore at grandma and grandpas' house in Canton. I also have many childhood memories of going up north to grandma and grandpas' cabin in Honor. Grandma and grandpa, you will finally be together again.
